

Aleksandr Khramouchin

Aleksandr Khramouchin, winner of many international competitions and prizewinner of the XIIIth International Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow (2002) is performing successfully all over the world. He appears in concerts and makes solo recordings for radio and television in USA, Canada, Japan, China, Russia and in all European countries.

Since 2010 Aleksandr Khramouchin is a member of the prominent Aviv Quartet. As a chamber music partner Aleksandr Khramouchin appears together with musicians such as Emmanuel Ax, Christian Ivaldi, Vladimir Sverdlov, Polina Leshenko, Sofja Glbadamova, Denis Goldfeld, Priya Mitchell, Alissa Margulis, Jack Liebeck to mention just a few. Aleksandr Khramouchin performs in many important music centers and concert halls, such as the "Concertgebouw" in Amsterdam, "Salle Gaveau" in Paris, the "Alte Oper" in Frankfurt... Born 1979 in Minsk (Belarus) into a family with deep musical traditions, in 1985, he entered the class of Vladimir Perlin in Minsk. After coming to Belgium in 1992, he continued his studies with Professor Hans Mannes at the Royal Conservatory of Antwerp. At the age of 19, Aleksandr Khramouchin won the position of First Solo Cellist in the "Orchestre Philharmonique du Luxembourg" in the Grand-Duch of Luxembourg.