

Benjamin Braude Violin & Viola

Benjamin Braude has appeared in solo and chamber music recitals throughout Europe, Israel, and the USA, and has performed as a soloist with such orchestras as the Antwerp symphony orchestra, the Antwerp Chamber Orchestra, the International Masterplayers Orchestra and the Nuovo Musicci Orchestra.

The music critic of “De Nieuwe Gazet”, Antwerp, commended him for:” ...supple bowing, fine sonority and interpretation based on a perfectly controlled musicality...”

During his 25 years acting as assistant concertmaster of the Antwerp Symphony Orchestra, Benjamin Braude performed in most of the major European concert halls under direction of Y. Temirkanov, G. Rozhdestvensky, W.Weller among others.

With the opera of Valencia he has performed under the direction of Lorin Maazel,

Zubin Mehta and Valery Gergiev among others.

Benjamin Braude has recorded for the “Talent” and “Discovery” labels.

Mr. Braude studied with A.Gertler, P.Bonddarenko, F.Andrievsky, and participated in masterclasses with I.Stern, H.Szering and Y.Menuhin.

Benjamin Braude teaches violin at the Royal Flemish Conservatory of Antwerp – Belgium.

He also teaches viola at London Royal College of Music (assistant to professor Nathan Braude).

Benjamin Braude is the artistic director of the festival „rencontres musicales de Leotoing“ - France