Zvi Carmeli

Viola

A graduate of the Curtis Institute of music, and the former solo violist of the Netherlands Radio Phil., Zvi Carmeli is a senior lecturer of viola and chamber music at the Jerusalem academy of Music and Dance. As soloist he has appeared with the Israel Camerata Jerusalem, the European Community Chamber Orchestra, the Gorzow Phil. and Rubinstein Phil. in Poland, Kuopio Symphony in Finland and more. He has performed in festivals such Emila Romagna, Perugia and Chieti Classica in Italy, MozArte and Viersener musiktagen Germany, Prussia Cove and Ulverston in England, the Israel Festival and kol hamusica in Israel and more. Zvi has collaborated in chamber music concerts with artists such as Vadim Repin, Anna Chumachenko, Benjamin Schmid, Homero Francesch, Enrico Pace, the Fine Arts Quartet and more, and is a founding member of the SoLaRe String Trio, winner of the Netherlands Impresaariat Competition. He has recorded for leading recording companies such as Ottavo, Divox, Ars Nova, Edel Berlin Classics and Kontrapunkt.

He regularly gives masterclasses in institutions such as the Lenk summer academy, Chieti Classica festival, the Hong Kong music Academy, JMC Jerusalem, Orchesterzentrum Dortmund and Barenboim Said Akademie Berlin in Germany and more.